

Terms & Conditions

The Police Electronic Records Management Service (PERMS) is a service provided by the Belize Police Department to citizens who wish to validate their personal judicial information.

Police record information can only be accessed once the terms and conditions outlined below are accepted.

Access is intended for users who are at least 18 years old. Persons under the age of 18 are not permitted to access and use the Website and its Content.

Purpose and Scope

The use of the information provided by the Belize Police Department is limited to personal use only. You may download publicly available Content from this Website only for your personal, non-commercial use, provided that you keep intact all copyright and other proprietary notices.

Any other use, including but not limited to instances such as obtaining an economic benefit or consulting the personal information of a third party, will be considered a violation of the Terms and Conditions as well as any applicable laws, rules, regulations and court orders and will be subject to legal action. Any natural or legal person, other than the owner of the data, is expressly prohibited from using the personal information contained on this website.

Restrictions on Access and Use

This Website and its Content are protected by applicable copyrights and other proprietary and intellectual property rights.

In accessing or using this Website and its Content, you agree to comply with these Terms of Use as well as any applicable laws, rules, regulations, and court orders.

You will not acquire any ownership rights over the Content or this Website from accessing the Website and its Content or by using its Services.

Applicant's understanding and acceptance of the Terms and Conditions

By accessing the Website and its Content, you agree that you have read, understood, and agreed to be bound by the Terms and Conditions outlined herein and agree that you:

1. Understand and accept that the Belize Police Department Website is the repository of information emanating from different judicial authorities and that, as such, it does not contain recommendations or decisions on judicial records themselves.
2. Understand and accept that, at any time and without prior notice, the Belize Police Department may i) modify or update its contents and requirements in the manner it deems appropriate, and ii) discontinue its services.
3. Understand and accept that the Belize Police Department is responsible for ensuring the consistency between the data that has been provided to it and which it registers/discloses but has no responsibility for the veracity of the same.
4. Truthfully declare that you are responsible for the use and care of the information you obtain through this online consultation of legal records.
5. Understand and accept that any breach on your part of this agreement gives the Belize Police Department an automatic right to initiate legal proceedings against you as a direct consequence of your breach.
6. Understand and accept that any actions pursued by the Belize Police Department under clause 5 are the result of the Department's duty of care for all users of this Website and the protection of all personal information contained therein.
7. Understand and accept that the Belize Police Department at all times is concerned with ensuring that highest of standards are set and maintained in both quality, transparency, the protection and confidentiality of all information and the defending of same through the engaging of due process in any and all legal proceedings.

Termination

Your access to and use of this Website and the Content may be terminated at any time without notice. You may not do any of the following:

- i. violate any applicable laws of Belize (including but not limited to the Data Protection Act, the Freedom of Information Act, the Cybercrime Act, etc.), copyrights, and other proprietary or intellectual property rights in this Website or the Content;
- ii. engage in any data mining or use "bots" or similar data-gathering and extraction tools or methods in connection with this Website or the Content;
